Virginia State Briefs

Lynchburg.—Due to changed conditions resulting from the automobile, the Farmers' Bank of Forest, twelve miles from Lynchburg, will move to Lynchburg late this month. Shopping and banking here by the bank's customers is given as the reason for the move.

Suffolk.—An old storage house on the wharf property, owned by John T. Lee and J. Webb Pinner, collapsed. It contained 18,000 bags of peanuts. Many of the bags burst and some fell into the Nansemond River when the end of the building fell away.

Lynchburg. — Lewis Jackson, a Lynchburg negro, has been convicted in the murder of another negro in a gambling game, and has been sentenced to fifteen years. The negro when arrested here admitted the killing, but claimed he acted in self-defense.

Richmond.—Approximately $400,000 of the half million-dollar centennial endowment fund being raised by the Virginia Episcopal Theological Seminary, near Alexandria, has been subscribed and the remainder is expected to be obtained within a few months, it was announced by Rev. Edmund L. Woodward, chairman of the central executive committee.

Lynchburg.—The city government here has instituted suit in the Federal District Court at Cleveland, Ohio, against the Cleveland-Trinidad Paving Company, for $11,000, claimed for the cost of repairs to the paving of Rivermont avenue, under a ten-year guarantee by the defendant company. The paving has proved the street about eleven years ago.

Bedford.—The orthopedic clinic held jointly by the local Red Cross Chapter and the State Rehabilitation Bureau, was a success in every way. All the expense of the clinic was borne by the Bedford Red Cross, and the examinations were made by Dr. T. H. Wheeldon, of Richmond. Dr. Bernard Kyle, of Lynchburg, was not here on account of illness. Twenty-eight patients were examined during the day.

Pulaski.—On petition of the Council of the town of Abingdon the judge of the Circuit Court of Washington county has ordered an order calling a special election to vote on a bond issue for the purpose of owning and operating her own water and electric light system. The date fixed is August 5. The town is now furnished its electric current and water by a private company. Advocates of town ownership allege exorbitant rates.

Richmond.—Highest rating in their respective infantry courses were given two Richmond boys attending the Citizens' Military Training Camp for the Third Corps at Camp Meade, Md. John T. Palmatory, 2818 Monument avenue, of Company G, Thirty-fourth infantry, was announced as the best basic candidate of Infantry, while Harry G. Butler, 410 North Tenth street, Company G, Thirty-fourth Infantry, was selected as the best blue candidate in infantry.

Fredericksburg.—Falmouth is to have a new school building of a modern and approved type for the coming session. This is made possible by the financial co-operation of the Falmouth Improvement League with the Stafford County School Board, and the generous donation by Colonel and Mrs. D. B. Devore of a site for the school on Chatham estate. Work of constructing the new school will be started at once, and it will be located on a commanding bluff overlooking the Rappahannock River. The new school will cost between $5,000 and $7,000; will be of frame construction, and will have four rooms and a study hall.

Norfolk.—Marvin James Lee, of Oceana, lost his life when his automobile left the road and turned turtle in a field along the Virginia Beach Boulevard. Three companions, Eugene Castle, of Hickory; T. S. Morris, of Oceana, and Arnold Smith, of Lynnhaven, sustained slight injuries. Lee and his party were on their way to Virginia Beach and, according to a report filed at police headquarters, were speeding along at nearly fifty miles an hour when the machine skidded, left the highway and turned over twice. Lee, who was at the wheel, was trapped beneath the overturned car. His companions were thrown clear off the machine, escaping serious injury.

Fredericksburg.—Falmouth, Stafford county, is to have a new school building of a modern type for the coming session. This is made possible by the financial co-operation of the Falmouth Improvement League with the Stafford County School Board, and the generous donation by Colonel and Mrs. D. B. Devore of a site for the school on Chatham estate. Work o constructing the new school will be started at once, and it will be located on a commanding bluff overlooking the Rappahannock River. The new school will cost about $7,000.

Luray.—Charles E. and Isaac N. Groves, twin brothers, 74, apparently are the playthings of fate. Charles E. Groves is a former member of the Legislature from this county and for a long time was superintendent of schools of Page. Both men are wealthy and for many years have lived close together at the town Stanley, ten miles south of Luray. Recently both of the men became ill at the same time, suffering from the same ailment, and were taken to the Harrisonburg Hospital for treatment. The brothers are farmers and have been identified with many of the leading enterprises of Page county.

Winchester.—A newly organized Lions' Club, with a charter membership of thirty-one, elected Herbert S. Larrick president for the ensuing year; George P. Norton, Dr. C. R. Alderson and Warren Rice, vice-presidents; Maxime L. Ducharme, secretary; John H. Seal, Jr., treasurer; the Rev. F. M. Casselman, lion tamer, and G. G. Baker, tail twister. George P. Norton, A. B. Schlack, P. C. Neidermeyer and R. M. Streit were elected directors. The club was organized by T. E. Castleberry, of Baltimore. The club has a number of applicants for membership, to be voted upon at its next luncheon meeting.

Cape Charles.—A new kind of "bootlegging" came to light at Eastville, the county seat, a few days ago, when Archie Holland, of Ocaacock, Accomac county, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Upshur when he appeared on the farm of Edward Holland, Jr., in a truck, trying to induce several colored laborers to leave their employer to work elsewhere at higher wages, and almost succeeded in leaving with a truck load when arrested by Constable R. E. Buck. According to Constable Buck, warrants have been sworn out for several other persons for similar offenses, but have not yet been located.

Covington.—What to do with all the prisoners committed to his charge is a problem which Sheriff Robert H. Dyche is facing. For the first time in a long while the Alleghany county jail is not only full, but two or three misdemeanor warrants are held up without service for the reason that there is no place to put the prisoners if they fail to furnish bail after being arrested. The county jail is not only full, but with two or three misdemeanor warrants awaiting execution, but four county prisoners are already confined in the Clifton Forge city jail for the county authorities, and if arrests continue, the Clifton Forge jail will be unable to hold them.

Richmond.—There are forty-one public libraries in Virginia, of which fifteen are supported by public funds or endowments, ten by endowments, entertainments, etc., and sixteen charge subscription fees, the annual report issued by the library extension division of the State Library shows. Charlottesville is in a class by itself, with a population of 10,688 and an annual income of $7,000 for its library. In the first class are Richmond, which has three libraries, including the State library; Charlottesville, Christiansburg, Farmville, Fredericksburg, Glencarlyn, Lynchburg, Norfolk, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Roanoke, Waynesboro and Winchester.

Fredericksburg.—The ancient brick structure in Falmouth, commonly designated by residents as the "courthouse" is being remodeled and repainted on both interior and exterior. Built of brick from England nearly a century and a half ago, about the time the village was at the height of its prosperity, when the first million dollar fortune in the United States was made there, it has weathered the ravages of time and has been used as a voting precinct and justice of the peace courtroom. Within the next month or two, a concrete street will traverse the main business thoroughfare of the village, which will be a link in the paved State highway.

Covington.—Dunn Wade, negro, charged with shooting and killing Virginia Holman, a negress, 30 years old, while she was in swimming in Potts Creek, near the Covington Furnaces on July 4, was ordered held for the grand jury at a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Ben Hooper. Either temporary insanity or an accidental shooting will be the plea of the defense, according to the line of questions asked witnesses by Colonel R. C. Stokes, counsel for the defense. Lucian Washington, a negro, who attended the colored picnic which was interrupted by the shooting and who took the pistol away from Dunn Wade after the alleged shots had been fired, told the court that Wade looked "queer."

Lynchburg.—J. M. B. Lewis, who was given a recess appointment as acting postmaster at Lynchburg to serve until confirmed by the Senate, was appointed to the office last summer, but the appointment was never confirmed. Mr. Lewis is a son of the late Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond, but he has been living here for a number of years. He is arranging to take charge as soon as bond can be approved. I. H. Adams, who resigned from the office, was appointed twice by President Wilson.

Where Eels Breed

The bureau of fisheries says that eels breed in salt water. The American eels breed in water 200 fathoms deep off the southwest coast of Bermuda. European eels breed within a few miles of the same place. The two species have never been known to cross-breed. Young eels migrate to fresh water. No American eel has ever been found in European waters nor a European eel in American streams.

An Astrological Tip

According to an old astrological prediction, a girl born in March is a frivolous chatterbox, somewhat given to quarreling, and if born in April is inconstant, not intelligent, but likely to be good looking.

"Man proposes, and God disposes" was aptly illustrated by the big fire in Lynchburg Saturday. Schewel Furniture Co. had advertised that it would give a bedroom suit, to the coupie who would be married in their booth at the Mercchants' Convention; other firms were going to give the wedding cake, wedding ring, transportation etc., but fate decreed otherwise—The couple, Miss Crystal Mae Watts and Gordon Moore were married all right and received the presents, as promised but like ordinary folks, were married in a prosaic church. We hope they will be happy just the same.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

"Second Summer" Teething

There is a common old saying among mothers that if the baby survives its second summer, it will be over the most dangerous period.

This is based on the fact that hot weather is hard on a teething child.

One of the most famous children's specialists says that a healthy child in teething may be fretful and sleep poorly for a few nights, may show loss of appetite, and slight fever, and may drool, but such spells should only last three or four days—and most of the symptoms commonly attributed to teething come from indigestion due to wrong food.

For children's indigestion, there's nothing more effective than Lin-o-lax, and they like to take it. You can get a good-sized bottle at the drug store for 30c.

DR. C. E. BURTS
General Director, 1925 Program, Southern Baptists.

Indicating the objects to which the money collected in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign goes, the headquarters of that movement in Nashville, Tenn., issued the following statement of the distribution of the $53,077,851 representing the reported figures on the sum collected on that account up to May 1, 1924. Foreign missions, $7,394,230.30; home missions $3,737,345.64; state and associational missions, $1,093,769.37; Christian education, $4,649,823.81; hospitals, $72,695.19; orphanages $4,464,866.37; ministerial relief, $2,253,154.44; otherwise and local $2,091,608.58; special credits and miscellaneous items $1,590,990.47; purchase and operation of state denominational papers $452,200.38; foreign relief $67,602.16; unattributed balances $152,259.77; Home Mission Board specials $15,940; Foreign Mission Board specials $56,102; raised by churches on foreign fields and expended by them in work there $1,003,390.68.

All Work Goes Forward

Every department of the general missionary, educational and benevolent work fostered by Southern Baptists has been greatly reinforced and strengthened by the campaign, it is reported, while a surprising degree of development that has come in the activities and liberality of the local churches as a result of this forward movement is furnished in the following statement of progress along general lines, furnished by the headquarters office:

Comparing the growth of the denomination during the five years preceding the Campaign with the five years since that program was projected it is shown that during the last five years the following advances have exceeded over the previous corresponding period: 1542 more new churches organized, a gain of 239 per cent; 241,946 more new members added, an advance of 46 per cent; 209,002 more baptisms administered, a gain of 37 per cent; 1,603 more new Sunday schools organized, a gain of 55 per cent; 354,727 more new Sunday school pupils enrolled, a gain of 122 per cent; $15,036,970.53 more reported in gifts to missions and benevolence, a gain of 187 per cent; $51,153,573.83 more noted in gifts to local church purposes, a gain of 95 per cent; $54,417,561.55 more reported in gifts to all causes, a gain of 117 per cent; and $57,147,004 advance shown in the value of local church property, a gain of 81 per cent.

Complete Collections Now

In the hope of completing the collection of all Campaign subscriptions by the close of this year and securing the remittance from those Baptists who did not subscribe to the five-year program an intensive effort during the remainder of the summer and fall will be made throughout the South under the general leadership of Dr. L. R. Scarborough, as general director, with the co-operation of the various state mission offices and the officers and workers in the nearly 1,000 district associations. It is planned that the interests of the denomination shall be adequately set forth at all of these associations in their annual meetings in the hope that the delegates to the associations will in turn carry the message back to their local churches and secure the completion here churches in fully completing the Campaign program so as to clear the way for the next forward program, beginning January 1, 1925.

Dr. C. E. Burts, former general secretary of the Baptist work in South Carolina, has assumed his duties as general director of the 1925 program and announces that he believes the program for next year can be most successfully launched by the satisfactory completion of the 75 Million Campaign during the remaining months of 1924. While making his plans for the projection of the new program, he is co-operating fully with Dr. Scarborough in the completion of the old one.

THE FIRST DISCIPLES OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—John 1:35-51.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Jesus saith unto him, Follow me."—John 1:43.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Calls Four Helpers.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus' First Followers.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What It Means to Follow Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Winning Others to Christ.

Through the testimony of John the Baptist, his disciples were pointed to Jesus. This same testimony he gave the previous day, but he was not ashamed to repeat his sermon. His theme was the Lamb of God, the sin bearer of the world.

I. Two of John's Disciples Follow Jesus (vv. 35-37).

As a result of the Baptist's testimony two of his disciples left him and followed Jesus. One of these disciples was Andrew (v. 40), and presumably the other one was John. When the Baptist pointed out Jesus as the Lamb of God, the long-expected Messiah, these disciples sought further acquaintance with Jesus. In view of John's request, they knew upon the earth. This look was sufficient to induce them to follow Jesus. They believed.

1². The Two Disciples Abiding With Jesus (vv. 38, 39).

1. Jesus' Question (v. 38). When Jesus saw the disciples following He asked kindly inquired as to their object.

2. The Disciples' Reply (v. 38). They answered his question by inquiring as to His dwelling place. Their reply showed their desire to go apart privately where they could disclose their hearts to Him. Knowing their hearts, He invited them to His place of abode.

1³. The Disciples Bringing Others to Jesus (vv. 40).

The very genius of Christianity is self-propagation. This usual method is to begin with those nearest us—husbands and relatives—and pass out to ever-widening circles. The disciples who work with Jesus in blessed fellowship go at once to tell others of the

1. Andrew Brings Peter (vv. 40-42). This is a beautiful sight of brotherly affection expressing itself in bringing another to Christ. The best place to begin our testimony for Christ is among our kinsfolk (Luke 8:39). This is a great piece of work for Andrew, for Peter became one of the pillars of the church of God.

2. Philip Bringing Nathaniel (vv. 43-46). Christ found Philip the following day as he would go forth into Galilee. Philip followed Him in response to a personal invitation. As soon as he found Philip, Philip found Nathaniel and witnessed to him concerning the messiahship of Jesus. He said unto him, "We have found Him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth" (v. 45). Nathaniel was somewhat skeptical, but he was honest. Philip met all the wisdom not to argue with him, but brought him to Jesus. The one he knew about when brought into the presence of Jesus will soon have all doubts removed (John 7:17).

1⁴. Nathaniel, Seeing and Hearing Jesus, Testifies to His Divinity (vv. 47-51).

As soon as Nathaniel saw and heard for himself all his doubts faded away. He who sets upon the light given shall see greater things (vv. 50, 51). Angels ascending and descending upon the Son of Man with His open heavens shows that Jesus Christ is the means of communication between earth and heaven (Heb. 10:19, 20; Eph. 2:18; Gen. 28:12).

This narrative concerning the experiences of the first disciples exhibits the following stages of Christian experience:

1. Hearing About Jesus (v. 36). How important it is that the minister and teacher have a proper conception of Jesus as the sacrificial Lamb, the deliverer of the world.

2. Looking Upon Jesus (v. 36). It is necessary that the sinner definitely fix his attention upon Jesus.

3. Following Jesus (v. 37). It is not enough to merely look upon Him. There must be definite efforts to follow after to inquire of Him.

4. Abiding With Jesus (v. 39). Those who earnestly look upon Jesus and inquire after Him He welcomes into blessed fellowship.

5. Witnessing for Jesus (vv. 41, 45). The first thing the one does who has come to Jesus is to begin to witness for Him.

6. Bringing Others to Jesus. The chief delight of the one who has come to know Jesus by a personal experience is to bring others to Him.

Success

"First of all," said President Garfield when a boy, "I must make myself a man: if I do not succeed in that I can succeed in nothing."

Good Temper

The difficult part of good temper consists in accommodation to the ill humor of others.
